

Area Sales Manager South East & South London

FloPlast is a manufacturer and supplier of plastic building products to a portfolio of customers that include builders and plumbers' merchants, plastic stockists, and roofing merchants.

We currently have an opportunity within our existing and successful external sales force for someone who is seeking to develop their career with an established and progressive company.

Reporting directly to the Southern Sales Manager, you will ideally have a sales background and have worked within the building / plumbing products industry.

This is a full-time position which requires considerable travel, including approximately 2 overnight stays a week.

Areas to be covered: South London, Surrey, Kent, West Sussex and East Sussex.

You should hold a valid UK driving licence, have a good working knowledge of IT & Microsoft Office, excellent communication and organisational skills, be driven, self-motivated and enthusiastic.

The position offers an attractive salary, annual bonus, pension scheme, Company car, laptop, mobile phone and expense account. Benefits include employee share plan, family and friends referral scheme, gym membership and discounts with selected local restaurants and retailers.

Want to apply?

Applications should be made in writing, detailing salary expectation with an outline of career history to Barbara Blackwell, HR / Training Administrator - barbarab@floplast.co.uk

**Please note that only candidates invited to attend an interview will be contacted****